

AMATEUR RADIO DISASTER COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK

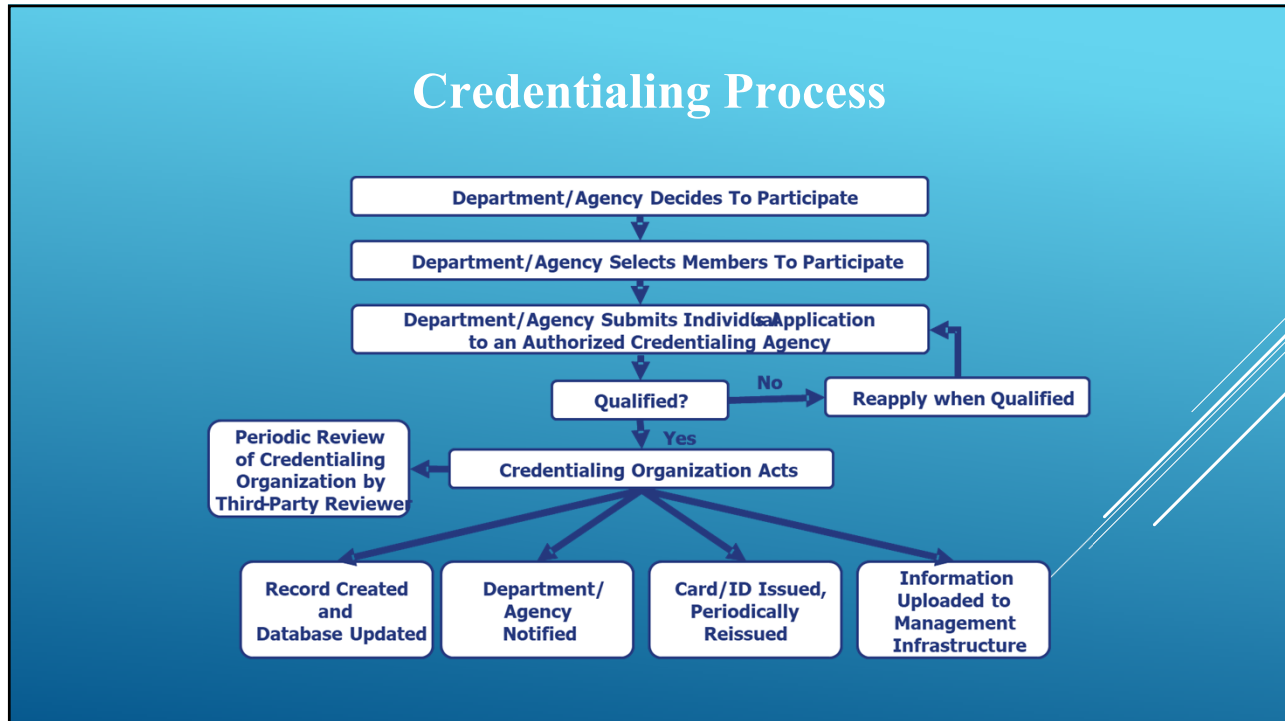

1

Goals of the Corporation

- ▶ State of Florida Nonprofit
 - ▶ Ability to receive donations
 - ▶ Ability to hold 50/50 and Raffles
- ▶ 501 C3 Nonprofit
 - ▶ Tax Exempt all donation made to the group
- ▶ ARRL Special Service Club
- ▶ Liability Insurance
- ▶ Credentialing of Members

AMATEUR RADIO DISASTER
COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK

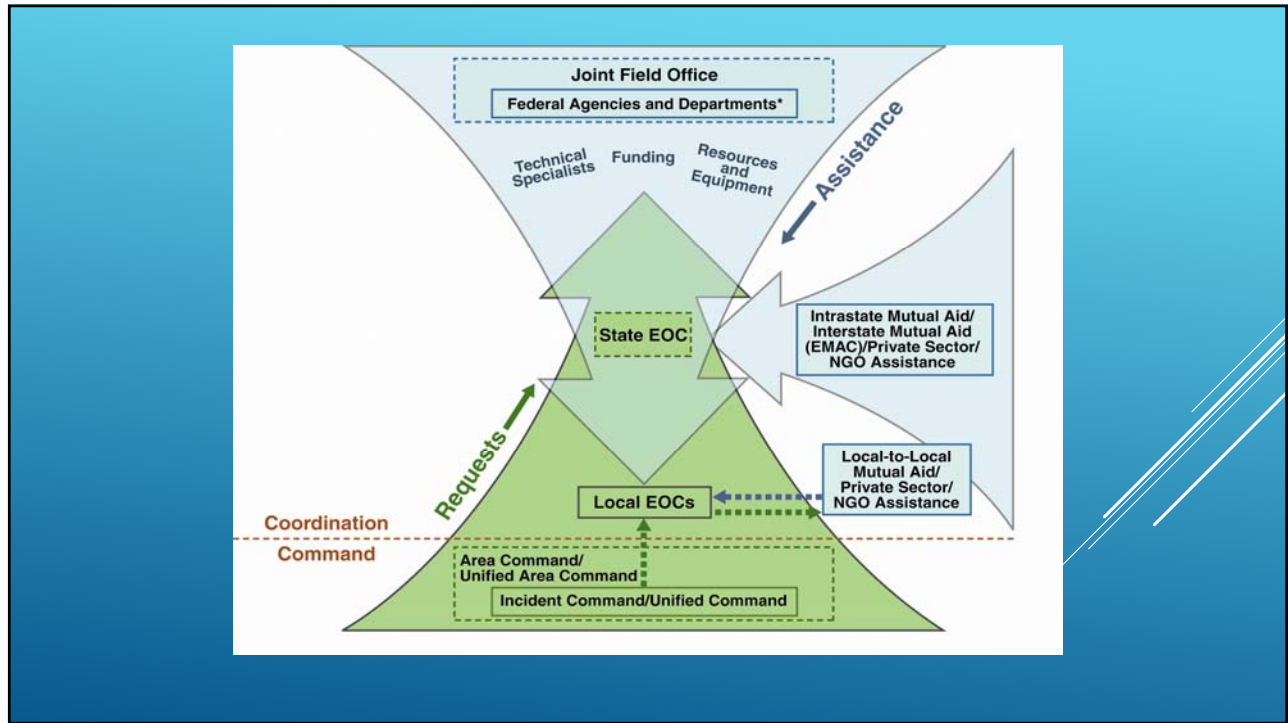

2

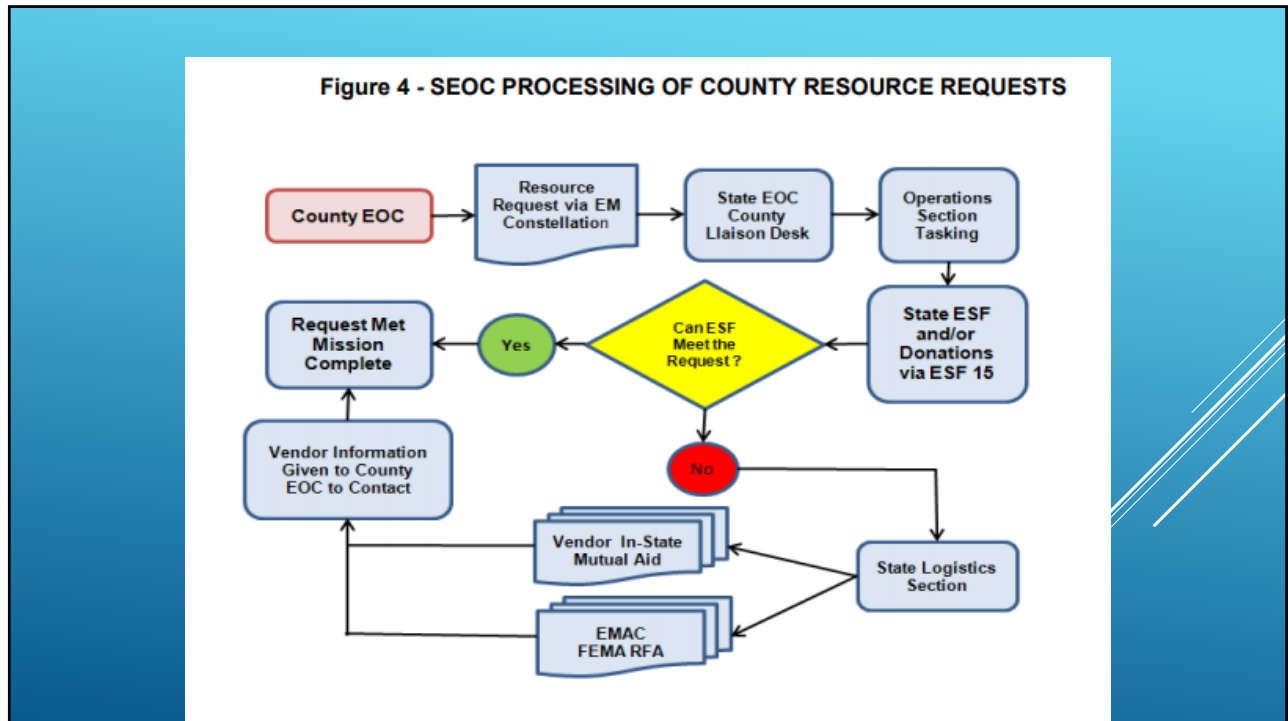

3

STATE OF FLORIDA EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT REQUEST PROCESS

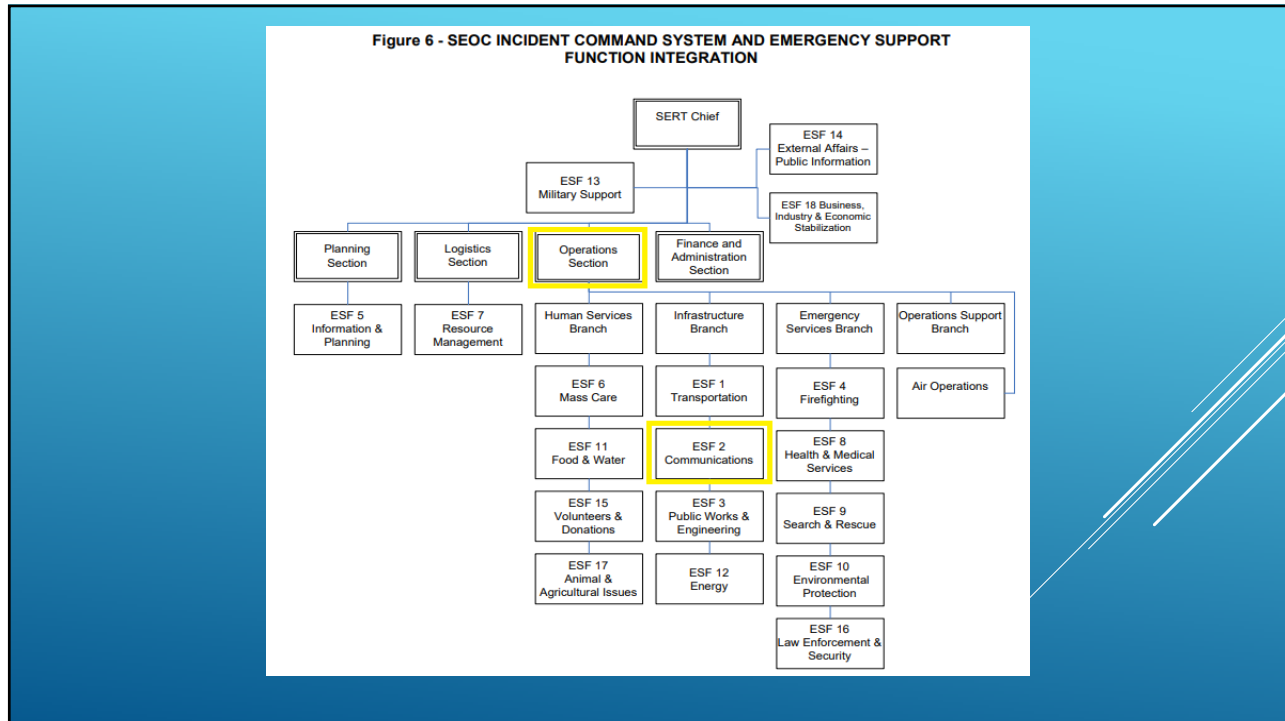

4

5

6

7

Training Requirements

- Federal
 - IS100, IS700
 - ICS300 if a Supervisor
 - ICS300 & ICS400 if in an EOC
 - Trained in a Disaster Specified Job

FLORIDA ARES ARRL MOU IN PROCESS

8

State of Florida

- IS100, IS200, IS700 & IS800
- ICS300 if a Supervisor
- ICS300 & ICS400 if in an EOC
- Level 2 Background Check
- Trained in a Disaster Specified Job
- Completion and Certification of required Task Book

FLORIDA ARES ARRL MOU IN PROCESS

9

Served Agency (local response only)

- Specified by the Served Agency

ARRL ARES Plan

- EC-001 all Deployable ARES Volunteers
- EC-016 Emergency Coordinators and Above

FLORIDA ARES ARRL MOU IN PROCESS

10

Requirements for Deployment

- Federal
 - All Training Requirements Meet
- State of Florida
 - All Training Requirements Meet
 - Requested Through the State of Florida via Mission Number
- Served Agency
 - Local Policy and or Directive

FLORIDA ARES ARRL MOU IN PROCESS

11

How Florida Amateur Radio Operators Gets Deployed

- Federal
 - Directly through their Served Agency i.e. Red Cross, Salvation Army, Etc.
 - Mission Requested by a State and Coordinated via Florida DEM
 - Emergency Management Assistance Compact
- State of Florida
 - Florida Counties Emergency Management Request and or State authorized NGO with MOU
 - Emergency Management Assistance Compact
- Served Agency
 - Direct support of the served agency request or directive

FLORIDA ARES ARRL MOU IN PROCESS

12